1. The Motion is GRANTED as modified herein.

2. The Debtors are hereby authorized to (i) engage RLKS on the terms described in the Motion and Engagement Letter, nunc pro tunc to November 15, 2022 and (ii) designate the Chief Officers as officers of the Debtors, nunc pro tunc to November 15, 2022, subject to the following terms, which apply notwithstanding anything in the Motion or any exhibits related thereto, including but not limited to the Engagement Letter to the contrary.

- (a) RLKS and its affiliates shall not act in any other capacity (for example, and without limitation, as a financial advisor, claims agent/claims administrator, or investor/acquirer) in connection with the above-captioned cases.

- (b) In the event any Debtor seeks to have the RLKS personnel assume executive officer positions that are different than that disclosed in the Motion, or to materially change the terms of the engagement by either (i) modifying the functions of personnel, (ii) adding new personnel, or (iii) altering or expanding the scope of the engagement, the Debtors shall file a motion to modify the retention.
- (c) No principal, employee or independent contractor of RLKS and its affiliates shall serve as a director of any of the above-captioned Debtors during the pendency of the above-captioned cases.
- (d) RLKS shall file with the Court, and provide notice to the United States Trustee (the “U.S. Trustee”) and all official committees, on a monthly basis, a report of staffing on the engagement for the previous month, including the names and functions filled of the individuals assigned (a “Staffing Report”). Parties-in-interest shall have 14 days after the date each Staffing Report is served to object to such Staffing Report. The Staffing Report shall be subject to review by the Court in the event an objection is filed.
- (e) RLKS shall file with the Court, and provide notice to the U.S. Trustee and all official committees, on a monthly basis, a report of compensation earned and expenses incurred for the previous month, including summary charts which describe the services provided, identify the compensation earned by each executive officer and staff employee provided, and itemize the expenses incurred (a “Compensation Report”). Time records shall be appended to the Compensation Reports and contain detailed time entries describing the task(s) performed. The time entries shall identify the time spent completing each task in 1/10/hour increments and the corresponding charge (time multiplied by hourly rate) for each task. Parties-in-interest shall have 14 days after the date each Compensation Report is served to object to such Compensation Report. The Debtors may pay all compensation and expenses detailed in each Compensation Report for which no objection is received within such 14-day period. In the event an objection is raised and not consensually resolved, the portion of the Compensation Report objected to shall be subject to review by the Court. No payments shall be made to RLKS until the objection period has passed, and in the event an objection is raised, no payment shall be made to RLKS on account of the portion of such Compensation Report objected to until such objection is resolved. The Debtors may file each monthly Staffing Report and each monthly Compensation Report as one joint single report.

- (f) Success fees, transaction fees, or other back-end fees shall be approved by the Court at the conclusion of the case on a reasonableness standard and are not being pre-approved by entry of this Order. No success fee, transaction fee or back-end fee shall be sought by RLKS upon conversion of these Chapter 11 Cases, dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases for cause, or appointment of a trustee.
- (g) The Debtors are permitted to indemnify those persons serving as executive officers on the same terms as provided to the Debtors' other officers and directors under the corporate bylaws and applicable state law, along with insurance coverage under the Debtors' directors and officers insurance policies.

- (h) There shall be no indemnification of RLKS or its affiliates.
- (i) For a period of three years after the conclusion of the engagement, neither RLKS nor any of its affiliates shall make any investments in the Debtors or any reorganized Debtors.
- (j) RLKS shall disclose any and all facts that may have a bearing on whether the firm, its affiliates, and/or any individuals working on the engagement hold or represent any interest adverse to the Debtors, their creditors, or other parties-in-interest. The obligation to disclose identified in this subparagraph is a continuing obligation. Within fourteen (14) days after any qualified bid deadline in these cases, RLKS will disclose through a supplemental declaration any connection between it, its affiliates, and/or any individuals working on the engagement and all bidders to the extent not disclosed prior to entry of this Order.
- (k) RLKS shall be deemed to have waived, and shall not raise or assert any defense, based upon jurisdiction, venue, abstention or otherwise to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court or (if the reference is withdrawn) the District Court for the District of Delaware to hear or determine any controversy or claims with respect to, in connection with, arising out of, or in any way related to RLKS's engagement in these Chapter 11 Cases.
- (l) Neither RLKS nor any of its employees or affiliates shall destroy or abandon any documents or information, whether in paper or electronic format, relating to the Debtors, absent further order of the Court, upon a motion on notice to parties-in-interest, including all regulatory agencies.

3. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order.

4. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry notwithstanding the applicability of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

5. To the extent that this Order is inconsistent with the Motion, or any of its attachments, including but not limited to the Engagement Letter, the terms of this Order shall govern.

6. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters relating to the interpretation or implementation of this Order.
